

These bookmarks may be used for any book you please, (not just mine). Widodo.

When you have printed both sides of your bookmarks, use a ruler and a sharp pencil to draw a faint line between the grey lines. Then cut along them with some scissors. It may help to get an adult to help you with this step. Rub out any stray pencil marks. Widodo.

Vidodo
the tree kangaroo who went snorkeling

If there were trees across the surface of the sea, I'd soon have solved
this intriguing mystery

Where hides the sun?
Or perhaps it's 'suns' ?
For every morning
out pops a new one

In truth no tree-dwelling roo
I've ever met
Has dared to swim out to discover yet

Where the ocean ends and the suns emerge and the waters press
apart in a great surge

Days are clear while nights are cool and black
And then, it appears,
somehow the sun
comes back
